

(Mandatory Language for Child Support – Deviation)

The Court finds that the amount of child support payable by the child support obligor pursuant to the child support worksheet is $_____ per month, for _____ child(ren), plus 2% processing charge. This includes $_____ in child support and $_____ in cash medical support.

The Court further finds, after considering the facts and criteria set forth under O.R.C. section(s) 3119.23, 3119.24 and/or 3119.231 (as applicable), that the amount of child support calculated pursuant to the child support worksheet would be unjust or inappropriate and not in the best interest of the child(ren). The Court finds that a deviation is warranted in this case pursuant to O.R.C. section(s) 3119.23, 3119.24 and/or 3119.231 (as applicable) for the following reason(s): _____

_____. The parties agree and represent to the Court that the aforementioned deviation factor(s) and/or criteria have a total monetary value of $_____ per month in child support and $_____ per month in cash medical support. The parties request the Court adopt these amounts for purposes of computing a deviation from the child support worksheet. Based upon the agreement and representation of the parties, and upon further consideration of all relevant factors set forth under O.R.C. section(s) 3119.23, 3119.24 and/or 3119.231 (as applicable), the Court finds that a deviation from the child support worksheet is warranted, as set forth above.
